Year Ending March 1, 1883.

HANOVER, N. H.
PRINTED BY P. H. WHITCOMB.
1883.

DARTMOUTH BOOKSTORE,

HANOVER, N. H.

Having acquired, by purchase of Mr. N. A. McCLARY, the stock, fixtures and good-will of the store known as the DARTMOUTH BOOKSTORE and combined with it my stock from the UNIVERSITY BOOKSTORE can now show the largest and best selected stock of Text and Miscellaneous Books, Blank Books, Stationery and Stationer's goods to be found anywhere within one hundred miles of here, at prices lower than have ever before been offered. A large line of Mackinnon and Stylograph Pens, all styles and prices,—also the Caligraph, the King of Fountain Pens,—Photograph and Autograph Albums and Scrap Books, all kinds from the cheapest to the best thing manufactured. Having an overstock of the best Gold Pens and Pencils, viz.: the Aiken, Lambert & Co., and E. S. Johnson's, will sell, for the next thirty days, at a large reduction from former prices. Now is a good time to get a good Gold Pen cheap. Remember every Pen warranted and privilege of exchange if not satisfactory. Also, have in their season a large stock of Diaries, N. H. and Vt. Registers, Prang's Christmas, New Year's and Birth-day Cards and Valentines. Any book published in the United States sent prepaid on receipt of price. Call and examine, peradventure you may be tempted to buy.
